- Quantifiable accomplishments include numbers of youth/families served, people trained, support groups established, etc.
- Non-quantifiable accomplishments should be listed in chronological order. Describe any draft/final products in this section.

Goals for strengthening the systems of care	1: Young adult (YA) leadership is developed in VT. Required activity: Operate in accordance with continuing input from key stakeholders (including youth and family members) within the regional systems of care.... New Young Adult Navigator, Raymond Drexel was hired in March 2011, as a 30 hour/week position (to replace two former 15 hour/week Young Adult Navigators who left positions in January/February) to provide support for youth to navigate systems in the community, as well as focus on social marketing and an online resource guide. In addition, this role was used to meet with and identify youth who can work together to form an advisory board and share youth voice to all aspects of the YIT funded initiative. Raymond has participated in meetings in St. Albans and Rutland in the formation of their youth advocacy board. Chris Vaughn, JOBS Case Manager, has also been working collaboratively with Raymond to develop the young adult advisory board and the Online Resource Center.
	2: Family/adult allies support young adults... Raymond attended a family support meeting where young adults spoke of ways in which parents and adult supports can help them. All YIT staff have made conscious efforts to (in line with TIPS Model practices) include informal supports, as defined by each young adult client, in the treatment process. Supports have included mentors, significant others and siblings. Bob DiMasi, VFN Transition Resource Consultant (YIT Parent Navigator), hosted a number of informational events for families of transition age youth in collaboration with other YIT staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Milton Family Event on March 22nd was held at the Milton Family Center to share information and highlight the resources for parents who have young adults who are having a difficult time navigating through the transition stage of life. In attendance were two families and a college student from Johnson State, as well as Chris Vaughn. • The Winooski Family Event on June 2nd was held at CCV and was attended by approximately 50 people. This event was based around the stories of six panelists who shared their transition stories, including where they are today and how they got there. Panelists were current or former students at Winooski High School and included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A student who graduated first in his class and went on to graduate from Wentworth College ○ Two new Americans (former refugees): a current junior and a Johnson State College student

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ A student from Green Mountain College who has Asperger's syndrome○ A student from Saint Michael's College who uses a wheel chair.○ A young woman who had previously been incarcerated and received her diploma from Winooski through the High School completion program. Each panelist told their story and answered specific questions posed by the moderator, as well as questions from the audience. Food was provided and no interpreters were requested. This panel event was a great collaboration between the following organizations: Vermont Family Network, Vermont Student Assistance Corporation, Winooski Community Justice Center and the Winooski School District. In addition, the Community College of Vermont provided the meeting space for free. <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Finally, a transition workshop was offered at the Career Planning Conference in Randolph on May 22nd. Information was presented about the transition process, particularly for students with disabilities, and the resources available to support them. Bob was able to provide a parental perspective about having a child with a disability to the 22 school counselors, administrators and parents that attended this event at Vermont Technical College. In conjunction with these family events, Bob created a power point presentation entitled "Transition Planning is a Team Event!", which is now on file at VFN. During this reporting period, Bob DiMasi supported 19 families of transition-age youth, with disabilities as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ ADD: 4○ Anxiety: 1○ ASD: 3○ Aspergers: 1○ Autism: 1○ Depression: 1○ Dyslexia: 1○ Emotional Disability: 1○ LD: 1○ LI: 2○ MH: 1○ Multiple disabilities: 1○ ODD: 1
	3: Workers use caring practices known to be helpful for young adults and families. Required activity: Provide cross-system case management and individualized service plan development, ensuring that young adults are engaged in planning for their

	own futures.... The JOBS Case Managers have provided case management and individualized treatment plan development driven by goals identified by each young adult client. Of note: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use of breathing and meditation exercises with youth• Implementation of In-vivo (TIPS term) modeling/learning with caseload of 15 young adults• Consistently provided choices, respected cultural and spiritual beliefs in direct service, case management and the development of individualized plans of care and goal setting with all clients• Worked on increasing the overall well-being and independence of clients with a special focus on employment.• Provided support for job searches, writing cover letters and resumes, application submission, following up with employers, outreach to employers, advocating for special training and on-the-job needs Since beginning in March 2011, the Young Adult navigator has worked with 23 young adults and has helped them fill out over 40 job applications, acquire food stamps, change social security payee information, start the process towards emancipation, navigate the legal system to work out retail theft charge, connect youth to homeless shelters in area, complete Medicaid paperwork in order to get insurance, complete resumes, and assist in getting driver's permit. The VFN Transition Resource Consultant attended 3 Act 264/Coordinated Services Plan Meetings to support 3 families. His role included explaining the Act 264 process and helping families feel comfortable with it. The meetings were held as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• January 7: Jean Garvin School• February 17: Burlington• May 10: Essex High School
	4: System of Care partners gain cultural & linguistic competence (CLC)... Chris Vaughn gained increased CLC through interaction with representatives from AALV and Refugee Resettlement during CWS (Creative Workforce Solutions) meetings. He also gained CLC in regard to Nepali, Vietnamese, Somali and Chinese cultures through direct service work with a Vietnamese client and through explanation by the YIT Case Manager focused on multicultural young adults (Linda Li). Part time position for clinician focusing on working with multicultural youth was refilled in December 2010 (after departure of former staff in October 2010). Staff (Linda Li) was trained and began making connections in the community as well as serving clients. Starting in January 2011, Linda supported approximately 20 young adults with various cultural backgrounds and maintained a caseload of 12 young adults. Cultures

	represented are Nepalese, Bhutanese, Somali, Congolese, and Kenya. Linda was able to refer a young woman to counseling through the Connecting Cultures Program and the Spectrum Counseling Program. She also established working relationships with interpreters, both locally and through phone interpreting services, and made significant connections in the Winooski School District through referrals by the Winooski High School nurse. Additional efforts included extensive work with Refugee Resettlement and the facilitator of a parents' support and resource night sponsored by AALV (Association of Africans Living in Vermont), with a strong turnout and several resulting referrals. Finally, Linda attended a Train the Trainer Conference for Interpreters working with mental health. She left on maternity leave in the beginning of June and is due to return to her position in September. In addition to the activities above, the YIT brochure was translated into Somali and Arabic and is being translated into 4 other languages. Bob DiMasi gave two presentations in January and February to Association of Africans Living in Vermont in regards to VFN and YIT services and resources. Raymond is also beginning conversations with young adults who wish to form a youth advocacy board. As noted above, YIT services were also presented at two informational events for parents of transition age young adults hosted by Vermont Family Network.
	6: Effectiveness of the Vermont System of Care for young adults with SED is evaluated..... In January, the Leadership Team invited Martha Maksym of United Way and Andy Strauss, State's Attorney, to a meeting to discuss truancy. Martha and Andy shared their respective experiences with the Truancy Task Force and court system, and the team discussed whether it should advocate for statute change regarding the age at which a student can decide to drop out. The Leadership Team continued to discuss ways to enhance young

	adults' transition plans since many teams do not re-convene after an initial crisis. After much discussion, the team decided that it made most sense to submit a list of transition questions to Melissa Bailey and advocate that they be included in the Coordinated Services Plan; there is likely greater chance of system change if new questions can be folded into an existing document.
	7: The State supports and sustains regional services for young adults.... Chris Vaughn met with Matt Wolf twice to discuss how state level YIT may support local efforts, specifically regarding a young adult advocacy board and the Online Resource Center.

2. Problems

Describe any deviations or departures from the original project plan including actual/anticipated slippage in task completion dates, and special problems encountered or expected. Use this section to describe barriers to accomplishment, actions taken to overcome difficulties, and to advise DMH of any needs for assistance.

Some challenges experienced in this time period include:

- Lack of follow through and consistency of youth
- Limited contact of youth due to lack of housing or cell phone and transient nature of youth served
- Identifying and accessing interpreters when needed at times
- Lack of diagnostic information and assessment of multi-cultural youth
- Inaccurate or unknown information regarding age of multi-cultural youth
- Transportation and consistency of public bus system
- Time taken up through travel to get to rural areas
- Families with youth who may be struggling with emotional issues, substance abuse, or other disabilities can be hard to identify and difficult to reach
- Adolescents who can sometimes be a barrier to accessing the parent (ex: answering the phone and not passing along the message to the parent)
- Families can have many events that overshadow the need of the adolescent on a daily basis, priorities can shift quickly. Many families are struggling to meet basic needs such as housing and consistent employment and these often, understandably, take priority.
- Connecting parents to parental support resources through adolescents. Many adolescents are also runaways or experiencing homelessness, and as a result, their families are not within reach. However, the VFN Transition Resource Consultant maintains open lines of communication with the Young Adult Navigator to encourage family referrals.
- Providing support to parents of older teens. Parents with 14 and 15 year olds could definitely benefit from support. Sometimes 16 feels late in the game. Offering support and resources to parents of 14 and 15 year olds could make a big difference

- because this is a time that parents often are still able to have some influence over their children.
- Adolescents and their families in rural areas can be difficult to reach when they are placed out of district.

3. Significant Findings and Events

For special notice to Principal Investigator, State Outreach Team for Youth in Transition, Federal Project Officer, etc. This should include any changes in staffing, including of persons, time spent, and/or responsibilities. Attach resumes and qualifications of new staff.

Two new staff (see attachments A and B):

- Linda Li, MSW (part-time staff working with multi-cultural youth)
- Raymond Drexel, MSW (Young Adult Navigator, 30 hours/week)

4. Dissemination activities

Briefly describe project related inquiries and information dissemination activities carried out over the reporting period. Itemize and include a copy of any newspaper, newsletter, and magazine articles or other published materials considered relevant to project activities, or used for project information or public relations purposes.

- Soft launch of facebook site: YIT Chittenden
- YIT brochures (translated into two other languages so far)
- Inclusion of YIT initiative on the Spectrum website
- Inclusion of YIT related resources on the Students First website
- Distribution of over 40 flyers throughout Chittenden County offering services through YIT initiative (see attachment C)

Process of dissemination within VFN:

When promoting a YIT activity or event, Bob follows the guidelines set forth by the Communications Director at Vermont Family Network. A press release is developed and sent to local newspapers such as the Milton community newspaper and other local venues where advertisement is free or very low cost. Second an announcement is developed and then distributed through VFN list serve, posted on the VFN website calendar of events and VFN Facebook page, and then sent to any other individual groups who have a connection to a YIT event by email or by regular mail. Front Porch Forum was used in Milton and Winooski (estimated to reach about 800 people in each community). Flyers were also distributed in both Milton and Winooski targeting Laundromats, community centers, church bulletins, local corner stores and various other grassroots locations.

5. Other Activities

Briefly describe other activities undertaken during the reporting period.

Attended and participated in the Second Annual Young Adult Voice Movement Conference on Friday, May 27th and Saturday, May 28th.

Bob DiMasi also attended the following:

- Transition Age Advisory Team – Listen to case presentations and act as reference or resource for parent if present; Held at Spectrum monthly.
- Core Team – Provides a connection to the employment specialist for Chittenden County who shares information and resources regarding employment for transition age individuals. Members include representatives from such groups as Linking Learning to Life, Vocational Rehabilitation Services, Department of Social Security, Department of Labor, school counselors and others.
- Career Start – State-wide committee that meets quarterly to share information and discuss current topics from various contacts around the state.
- ACCESS Team – Joined as a parent representative to share views of parental engagement.
- Family Support VFN – Attend these weekly meetings when possible to share information and receive information and referrals from other Family Support staff.

6. Activities Planned for Next Reporting Period

Briefly describe the project activities planned for the next reporting period.

Continuing focus groups with young adults to gather input and feedback regarding the information gathering and launching of the resource website. This will include instructional videos made by youth to assist in independent living tasks. It will also include interviews between young adults and community members or businesses describing resources and services available.

Attendance at the TIP training event on September 30, 2011 at Lake Morey Resort.

Getting the YIT brochure translated into more languages.

Beginning the process of implementing a youth advocacy board with well defined roles.

Increasing the level of awareness in the community of the YIT grant and increasing the number of young adults who are referred to the program.

Organizing transition events in other communities (Hinesburg, Charlotte, Shelburne) given the success with the "Planning for Life after High School" event in Winooski. Communities now have the option of organizing a panel discussion or a community workshop on services available to transition age youth. Bob DiMasi has talked briefly with Chris Vaughn and Ray Drexel about branching out to other rural areas, and they are supportive. Bob also received a call back from The Family Center in Milton as they have had a change in leadership and would like to revisit the event that happened in March. It is our hope that out of these events will identify families of transition –age youth who would like to connect with each other for support and information sharing events.

Continue implementation of the other YIT strategies.
