Sean Smart, a former volunteer youth, now employee, is our new cook for The Center. He began work in August and is doing an outstanding job for us.

Hard Core 4 a Cause (A Center donation event), took place on November 4th. All proceeds (admission and food donations) were given to the 802 Relief Foundation which provides Vermont residents with needs and services such as clean water, firewood, and home repairs due to recent events like that of Hurricane Irene. Hard Core 4 a Cause was a big success. We were able to donate over $200 and a ton of canned goods and cleaning products.

The Drop In Center had 3 youth who use our resources on a regular basis find jobs in November and December.

The Drop In Center has been awarded a $2700 grant to begin an Outdoor Photography Program for youths ages 16 to 21 that are interested in learning how to photograph nature in Rutland County. The program will take place January to May 2012.

Please report major activities and accomplishments for the following goals, outcomes, and indicators as relevant for the sub-grant. [This section of the report may be entered directly into the table below.]

Goals for strengthening the systems of care	1: Young adult (YA) leadership is developed in VT. By getting to know our key stakeholders, this will allow us to know what is expected of us, from our stakeholders, and how we can continue to strengthen the systems of care. We held collaborator meetings in August and November where our area stakeholders and collaborator’s met at “The Drop In Center” to discuss our successes and challenges. We discussed ways to better provide for our youths and talked about additional resources and trainings available to “The Drop In Center” staff and youths. Center staff participates in Rutland County’s Adult Workforce Workshops to better prepare us in helping our young adults find and keep jobs. In addition, we regularly attend Rutland County’s Women Collaborative meetings to discuss ways to better meet the needs of unemployed, untrained young women in the area.
	2: Family/adult allies support young adults....
	3: Workers use caring practices known to be helpful for young adults and families. Our plan to accomplish this is continued training and participation in stakeholder and neighboring agencies meetings/projects. Center staff traveled to Lake Morey for a YIT training and sharing day in September. By discussing possible ways to get more young adults involved in the Common and National Study, the Center has been able to bring several new youths on board for the study. We are also planning to attend “Say it Straight” training with the Rutland Area Prevention Coalition and have attended “Bridges out of Poverty” training through the Vermont Foodbank this past fall.

	These training seminars are all known to be very positive for working with youths and their families. 4: System of Care partners gain cultural & linguistic competence (CLC).... 5: Local communities (including young adults) change their perceptions of young adults and of mental health issues, reducing stigma.... 6: Effectiveness of the Vermont System of Care for young adults with SED is evaluated..... 7: The State supports and sustains regional services for young adults.... This is being developed by continued reporting and is becoming more useful over the course of the grant period.
Desired outcomes for young adults of transition-age	1. Decreased number of young adults involved in the corrections system (including an increase in the number who are free of incarceration). The Center staff continues street outreach, Center open hours for drop in, serving lunch, and engaging youth to build trust and caring relationships. The Center offers volunteer, service learning and internships for youth referred from many local organizations including Restorative Justice/ Diversion, Drug Court, Rutland High School, Vermont Adult Learning, and many more. Youth volunteering at the Center are also given career exploration, resumes, references, and job skills to help them succeed and reach their goals. We regularly attend local RAP Coalition meetings. RAP is the Rutland Area Prevention group that looks to find ways to prevent drug, alcohol, and tobacco use among the area residents, particularly among its young adults. The Drop In Center has been able to provide community service hours for youth in diversion programs. This gives youths opportunities to give back to the community it has harmed while avoiding time in juvenile facilities or local/county jails. We have been able to help several youth avoid incarceration by giving them another chance to prove themselves as contributing members of society. Jaymie participated as a Panel member for a panel discussion at the Rutland Free Library in December. The film discussed was "Troop 15", which documented a Girl Scout Troop where several members' mothers were convicted criminals sentenced to time in a Texas prison. The film displayed the hardships of both mothers and daughters involved. The discussion was based on ways to help similar young girls in our area avoid following in the footsteps of their mothers and lead a life free of crime.

	2. Increased number of young adults who are employed.... The Center has been able to increase youth employment with mock interview workshops, more extensive resume help, multiple job search resources, providing interview clothing through donations and thrift shops, providing work attire through other funding, and transportation (bus passes) privileges. As mentioned earlier, a former volunteer to the Center is now the new cook for us five days a week. We were able to connect 3 young adults who access the Center regularly with jobs in December.
	3. Increased number young adults participating in (or who completed) educational programs.... We have been working very closely with Job Corp. The Center has been able to help three individuals get accepted to this wonderful program. The Center has also helped two more youths find the courage to enroll at CCV for the spring semester.
	4. Increased number of young adults who have access to, and are using, a medical home....
	5. Increased number of young adults living in safe and stable housing.... We have been able to (after 3 ½ very long months)help find a regular visitor of the Center and homeless youth find safe housing just before the snow started to fly. He is very grateful to have a warm place and bed to go to at night.
	6. Increased number of young adults who have caring & supportive relationships.... The Center also provides a strong support system for all youths that come to us involved in the criminal justice system or not. We provide community service “volunteer opportunities for those who have been court mandated for hours or those just looking for job experience. It seems that if The Center has a working relationship with a youth, they are less likely to follow a path of crime. This may be because the youth does not want to disrupt the relationship or disappoint those who support him/her at The Center
	7. Increase in young adults’ strengths and protective factors....

	8. Improved mental health for young adults. This has been at a stand still for the past several months. Many services can not take on new clients at this time or are cutting back on funding. I will readdress this issue in the next bi-annual report.
